Cinven and Warburg Pincus plan to further reduce stake in Ziggo N.V.

- Ziggo shareholders Cinven, Warburg Pincus and their co-investors intend to sell ca. 40 million ordinary shares in Ziggo N.V. via accelerated bookbuild
- Resulting in a stake of approximately 17,1% in Ziggo N.V.

Ziggo N.V. ("Ziggo") hereby announces that its major shareholders, Cinven Cable Investments S.à r.l. and WP Holdings IV B.V. (respectively "Cinven" and "Warburg Pincus") have last night (March 18, 2012) announced an offering of ca. 40 million existing Ziggo N.V. shares owned by them and certain of their co-investors (the "Offering").

The offer size is equivalent to 20% of Ziggo's ordinary share capital.

The current direct combined ownership interest of Cinven, Warburg Pincus and their co-investors is 74.2 million shares, representing 37.1% of Ziggo's ordinary share capital. After the completion of the transaction, Cinven, Warburg Pincus and their co-investors will own a combined 34,2 million shares in Ziggo, representing approximately 17,1% of the capital.

The shares offered in the Offering will be placed in a private placement to investors outside the United States on a Reg S basis, and to US Qualified Institutional Buyers under an available exemption. The price per share and the final number of shares sold will be determined on completion of the bookbuilding.
